INDEX TO VOL. LXI

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ADM

ADMIRALTY, Recent Attacks on the, 195–208
Æsthetic ideals and the art of Giotto, 76–86
Afghanistan and its Ruler, 42–51
Agricultural depression and burdens on land, 419–428
Agricultural Education in the United Kingdom, 108–118
Ahasuerus, the Wandering Jew, The legend of, 969–979
Alcohol, its use and abuse, 833–836
Ali (Ameer), Afghanistan and its Ruler, 42–51; Unrest in India, The —its Meaning, 873–885
American laws of divorce, 119–126
'Angelic Council,' The, 752–763
Angling on Tweed and Test, 638–644
Anglo-French Alliance from a French point of view, 12–26
Arbuthnot (Gerald), How Local Government is worked in Ireland, 1024–1032
Archer (William), Ibsen's Imperialism, 244–255
Army Bill, The, and the auxiliary forces, 742–751
Army reform and compulsory military training, 364–376
Art and beauty and the blight of machinery, 68–75
Arthur (Sir George), Imperial Outposts, 736–741
Austria and the Bosnians, 685–700
Authors and Publishers, 852–859

BAGHDAD, The Dogs of: a Study from Life, 1004–1011
Bank of England, Gold reserve at the, 150–162
Barker (J. Ellis), Germany at the Parting of the Ways, 209–226; Will the British Empire Stand or Fall? 715, 726
Barrie (M. Maltman), A Democrat's Defence of the House of Lords, 336–348

BRI

Barry (Sir John Wolfe), The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 190–194
Bathurst (Katharine), The Educational Ladder, 776–779
Battleships and cruisers, British and foreign, 377–394
Baughan (E. A.), The Background of Drama, 256–264
Beasts, Our Brothers the, 808–820
Bees and Blue Flowers, 97–107
Behdjet Wahby Bey, Pan-Islamism, 860–872
Bengal and the Punjab, Anti-English agitation in, 873–885
Bennett (E. N.), 'A Temperance Town,' 87–96; Playing at Soldiers, 742–751
Benson (Frank R.), An Attempt to Revive the Dramatic Habit, 237–243
Birth-Rate, The, and the Mother, 429–435
Blind (Karl), The New Situation in Germany, 458–471
Boer ideals and the future of South Africa, 727–735
Book-production and the demand for cheapness, 852–859
Books for tired minds, 837–842
Bosnia and the Hercegovina, A Ride through, 685–700
Bourchier's (Mr.) Macbeth at the Garrick Theatre, 449–457
Bradley (Rose M.), Some London Children at Play, 571–586
Britain's Task in Egypt, 990–995
British Army, Mr. Haldane's reductions in the, 542–548
British credit and the low price of Consols, 821–832
British Empire, The, Will it Stand or Fall? 715–726
British Fleet, The, and the Balance of Sea Power, 377–394
British military stations from Gibraltar to Japan, 736–741
British rule and native art and culture in India, 892–901

BUL

Bulman (G. W.), Bees and Blue Flowers, 97–107
Burghclere (Lord), The Marriage of Peleus and Thetis, 302–305

CAMPBELL (Lady Archibald), Our Brothers the Beasts, 808–820
Cardigan (Earl of), The Church of England: a Plea for Reform, 509–516
Catullus, Carmen lxiv. translated, 302–305
Catullus, The Influence of, 163–172
Ceylon pearl fishery, The, 843–851
Channel Tunnel Project, The Revived, 173–194
Channel Tunnel, The, and Public Opinion, Supplement to February number
Chapman (Hon. Mrs.), Women and Politics: a Rejoinder, 595–601
Chenier (André) and the Reign of Terror, 136–141
Child-bearing and child-rearing, 429–435
Children, How to teach religion to, 764–775
Children's amusements in East London, 571–586
Children's Competitions, 587–592, 996–1003
Christian Missions in India, Are they a Failure? 886–891
Christine de Pisan, 602–610
Church Difficulties in France from a French Point of View, 933–949
Church (Rev. Alfred J.), Authors and Publishers, 852–859
Church of England, The: a Plea for Reform, 509–516
Churchill (Lord Randolph) and Tory democracy, 405–418
Civilisation and progress in Siam, 902–908
Clemenceau (M.) as Writer and Philosopher, 611–617
Clodia and Catullus, 163–172
Colchester (Lord), The Evil of Ignoring Minorities, 548–558
Colonial Study, A, of London Civilisation, 559–570
Colvin (Sir Auckland), Egypt To-day, 525–541
Commerce and the laws of maritime warfare, 918–932
Commercial unity and mutual preference within the British Empire, 701–714
Conservative Opportunists and Imperial Democracy, 405–418
Consols, The Firmness of, 821–832
Cooke (C. W. Radcliffe), The Invasion Scare: a New View, 395–404

ENT

Corbett (Julian S.), Recent Attacks on the Admiralty, 195–208; The Capture of Private Property at Sea, 918–932
Crome and the Norwich School of Painters, 670–684
Cromer (Lord) and 'Nationalists' in Egypt, 990–995

DAIRY-FARMS, dirt, and disease, 950–960
Daly (Dominick), 'La Jeune Captive,' 136–141
Dance, The, and the Plastic Arts in Ancient Greece, 477–489
Davy (Lieut.-Col. F. A.), What to Drink, 833–836
Dimnet (Abbé Ernest), M. Clemenceau as Writer and Philosopher, 611–617
Divine Council of Heavenly Beings in the work of creation, 752–763
Divorce in the United States, 119–126
'Divorce, Doctrine and Discipline of,' Milton's, 127–135
Dogs of Baghdad, The: a Study from Life, 1004–1011
Down (T. C.), Pirate Trelawny, 798–807
Drama, The Background of, 256–264
Dramatic Habit, The, An Attempt to Revive, 237–243
Drink, What to, 833–836
Dunraven (Earl of), Reform of the House of Lords, 349–363; The Irish Council Bill, 1033–1046

EARTHQUAKE in Jamaica, The, and Sir A. Swettenham's resignation, 909–917
East-End children at play, 571–586
Education Bill, The, of 1906, and the Future of Popular Education, 1–11
Education, Elementary and Secondary, 490–500
Education, Japanese, 1012–1023
Education of children in morals and religion, 764–775
Education of Indian Princes, The, 52–55
Educational Ladder, The, 776–779
Egypt, Britain's Task in, 990–995
Egypt To-day, 525–541
Ellis (Havelock), Religion and the Child, 764–775
Empire, The Problem of, 701–714
Enfranchisement of women, The, and the 'sweating' system, 472–476
English manners, A Colonial view of, 559–570
English Oral Tradition, 436–445
English writers of the last century, 645–657
Entente—English or German? 12–26

Epigrams in the Greek Anthology, 629–637
Erroll (Colonel the Earl of), Mr. Haldane's Dream of a 'National' Army, 542–547
European education for Indian princes, 52–55
Evolution of blue flowers, 97–107
Evolution of the Income-Tax, The, 56–67
'Ex-,' The Tragedy of the, 293–301

FARMERS and landowners, 419–428
Farming and gardening, The teaching of, 108–118
Female Prisoner, The, 780–797
Female suffrage, 227–236
Fifteenth-Century Feministe, A, 602–610
Food Supply, Our, The Homes of, 950–960
Foreign troops in French and English armies, 320–335
Forest conservancy in India, 265–286
Forgotten favourites, 293–301
Foster (Sir Michael), Education, Elementary and Secondary, 490–500
France, The Church Difficulties in, from a French Point of View, 933–949
France, The religious crisis in, 27–41
Franco-German relations and the Anglo-French entente, 12–26
Franqueville (Comtesse de), The Church Difficulties in France from a French Point of View, 933–949
Fruit-growing and garden cities, 961–968

GERMANY at the Parting of the Ways, 209–226
Germany, France, and the entente, 12–26
Germany, The New Situation in, 458–471
Giotto in Modern Life, 76–86
Gore-Booth (Eva), Women and Politics: a Reply, 472–476; two Rejoinders to, 593–601
Government policy and the King's Speech, 517–524
Greece, Ancient, The Dance and the Plastic Arts in, 477–489
Greek Anthology, The, 629–637
Greek War of Independence, Adventures of Trelawny during the, 798–807
Grossmann (Mrs.), A Colonial Study of London Civilisation, 559–570

HABEEB-ULLAH KHAN, Ameer, and Afghan politics, 42–51
Haldane (Mr.) and Army reform, 364–376, 377–394
Haldane's (Mr.) Army Bill and the Auxiliary Forces, 742–751
Haldane's (Mr.) Dream of a 'National' Army, 542–547
Haliburton (Lord), Universal Military Training as a Practicable Scheme, 364–376
Hampshire, The Literary Associations of, 658–669
Harris (Capt. Vernon), The Female Prisoner, 780–797
Havell (E. B.), Indian Administration and 'Swadeshi,' 892–901
Hercegovina, Bosnia and the, A Ride through, 685–700
Hincks (Marcelle Azra), The Dance and the Plastic Arts in Ancient Greece, 477–489
History preserved in rural traditions, 436–445
Hodgson (W. Earl), Hope for the Trout-Streams, 638–644
Home Rule, or Irish self-government, 501–508
Home Rule and the Irish Council Bill, 1024–1032, 1033–1046
Hurd (Archibald S.), The British Fleet and the Balance of Sea Power, 377–394
Hyde (A. G.), Reviewers and Reviewed: the New Culture, 980–989

IBSEN'S Imperialism, 244–255
Idle Reading, 837–842
Imperial Democracy, Conservative Opportunists and, 405–418
Imperial Outposts, 736–741
Imperial unity for defence of the Empire, 715–726
Income-Tax, Evolution of the, 56–67
India, Christian Missions in, Are they a Failure? 886–891
India, The Forests of, and their Administration, 265–286
India, The Unrest in—its Meaning, 873–885
Indian Administration and 'Swadeshi,' 892–901
Indian Princes, The Education of, 52–55
International law as regards commerce during time of war, 918–932
Invasion Scare, The: a New View, 395–404
Ireland, How Local Government is worked in, 1024–1032
Irish Council Bill, The, 1033–1046
Irish Policy of the Government, 501–508

JAMAICA, The 'White Flag' in, 909–917
Japanese Education, 1012–1023
'Jeune Captive, La,' 136–141
Jones (L. A. Atherley), The Irish Policy of the Government, 501–508
Julian the Apostate and Ibsen's Emperor and Galilean, 244–255

KAPURTHALA (Raja-i-Rajgan of), The Education of Indian Princes, 52–55
Kemp-Welch (Mrs. W.), A Fifteenth-Century Feministe, 602–610
Kikuchi (Baron), Japanese Education, 1012–1023
King's Speech, The, 517–524
Knowles (Sir James), The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 173–175
König (Prof. Eduard), The Wandering Jew, 969–979

LAND, What shall we do with our? 419–428
Lane (Mrs. John), The Tragedy of the 'Ex-,' 293–301
Lee (Sidney), his Shakespeare and the Modern Stage criticised, 256–264
Liberal crusade against the House of Lords, 336–348
Literary Associations of Hampshire, The, 658–669
Literary criticism in the daily Press, 980–989
Literature of the under-educated and of the over-educated, 645–657
Local Government, How it is worked in Ireland, 1024–1032
London Children at Play, Some, 571–586
London Civilisation, A Colonial Study of, 559–570
Lords, Reform of the House of, 349–363
Lords, The House of, A Democrat's Defence of, 336–348
Lucretius, Catullus, Byron and Burns, 163–172

MACBETH on the Stage, 446–456
McCrae (George), The Evolution of the Income-Tax, 56–67
Macdonell (Sir John), The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 186–189
Macfadyen (Mrs. Alfred N.), The Birth-Rate and the Mother, 429–435
Machinery, The Curse of, 68–75
Madras (Bishop of), Are Christian Missions in India a Failure? 886–891
Maine liquor laws and Pennell's licensing system, 87–96
Maitland (Frederic William), his Life of Leslie Stephen, 618–628
Malcolm (Ian), The 'White Flag' in Jamaica, 909–917
'Manners, The Decay of,' 287–292
Manual training as the basis of elementary education, 776–779
Marriage and motherhood the proper sphere for women, 593–594
Martin (Eva M.), Children's Competitions, 587–592, 996–1003
Maurice (Major-General Sir Frederick), The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 176–181
Medd (John C.), Agricultural Education in the United Kingdom, 108–118
Mercenaries, The Employment of, in Ancient and Modern Times, 321–335
Middle-class children's literary competitions, 587–592, 996–1003
Miéville (Sir Walter), Britain's Task in Egypt, 990–995
Military training for civilians, an experiment, 142–149
Military Training, Universal, as a Practicable Scheme, 364–376
Milton's 'Doctrine and Discipline of Divorce,' 127–135
Minorities, The Evil of Ignoring, 548–558
Missions in India, Christian converts among the lower castes and pariahs, 886–891
Money Market, 'Window Dressing' in the, 150–162
MonkBretton (Lord), South African Loyalty, 727–735
Montenegro, 306–320
Moral training of children, its methods and results, 764–775
Morgan (Frank Alton), Orchard Cities, 961–968
Muhammadan unrest in Egypt, 525–541
Murray (Col. A. M.), his Imperial Outposts reviewed, 736–741
'Mussulman Peril,' The alleged, 860–872

NAQUET (ALFRED), Entente—English or German? 12–26
Navy, The British, and its critics, 195–208
Nest (G. Willett Van), Divorce in the United States, 119–126
Nicholas (Prince) and the Montenegrins, 306–319

NIC

Nicholson (Arthur P.), The Norwich School and their Last Exponent, 670–684
Nisbet (John), The Forests of India and their Administration, 265–286
Norwich School, The, and their Last Exponent, 670–684

ORCHARD Cities, 961–968
Oysters and pearl divers, 843–851

PAGAN mysticism in M. Clemenceau's writings, 611–617
Pageants, plays, and folk-songs, 237–243
Palmer (Rev. Dr. A. Smythe), 'The Angelic Council,' 752–763
Pan-Islamism, 860–872
Pariah dogs of Baghdad, The, 1004–1011
Parliament and politics, 1–11, 336–348, 349–363, 405–418, 501–508, 517–524, 1033–1046
Parliamentary redistribution and representation of minorities, 548–558
Patriotism and the defence of the Empire, 395–404
Patriotism and 'Swadeshi' in India, 892–901
Paul (Herbert), The Influence of Catullus, 163–172; The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 182–183; The King's Speech, 517–524; The Greek Anthology, 629–637; Idle Reading, 837–842
Pearl Fishery, The, of Ceylon, 843–851
Peleus and Thetis, The Marriage of, 302–305
Perry (Walter Copland), The Employment of Mercenaries in Ancient and Modern Times, 321–335
Physical reasons against female suffrage, 595–601
Playing at Soldiers, 742–751
Pollock (Lieut.-Col. Alsager), The 'Spectator' Experimental Company, 142–149
Pollock (Walter Herries), Macbeth on the Stage, 446–457
Pope, The, and France, 27–41
Popular in Literature, A Plea for the, 645–657
Priestley (Lady), The Homes of Our Food Supply, 950–960
Private Property at Sea, The Capture of, 918–932
Prothero (George W.), The Life and Letters of Leslie Stephen, 618–628

RADICALS and a revising Chamber, 349–363
Reformed Church of England, A, 509–516

TEM

Reichstag, The German, and the elections, 209–226
Religion and the Child, 764–775
Reviewers and Reviewed: the New Culture, 980–989
Roman Church, The, and the French Government, 933–949
Royce (Rev. G. Monroe), English Oral Tradition, 436–445
Russell (George W. E.), The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 184–185

SALTOUN (Lady), What shall we do with our Land? 419–428
Scarlet fever and the milk supply, 950–960
Sculpture, painting, and the dance in ancient Greece, 477–489
Sea Power, Balance of, The British Fleet and the, 377–394
Sélincourt (Basil de), Giotto in Modern Life, 76–86
Shakespeare's plays, The staging of, 256–264, 446–457
Shintoism, Buddhism, and education in Japan, 1012–1023
Siam, The King of, and his Country, 902–908
Socialists, Ultramontanes, and the German elections, 209–226, 458–471
Society manners and the decline of chivalry, 287–292
Soldiers, Playing at, 742–751
Somerset (Somers), The Pearl Fishery of Ceylon, 843–851
South African Loyalty, 727–735
'Spectator' Experimental Company, 142–149
Spender (J. A.), A Plea for the Popular in Literature, 645–657
Stag-hunting in France, 808–820
Stanley of Alderley (Lord), The Education Bill of 1906 and the Future of Popular Education, 1–11
Stark (Arthur) and other Norfolk painters, 670–684
Stephen (Leslie), The Life and Letters of, 618–628
Stephen (Miss Caroline E.), Women and Politics, 227–236; a Reply to, 472–476; a Rejoinder, 593–594
'Swadeshi,' Indian Administration and, 892–901
Swettenham (Sir A.), his resignation of Governorship of Jamaica, 909–917

TAXATION based on personal declaration of income, 56–67
'Temperance Town, A,' 87–96
Tempest (Adolphus Vane), 'The Decay of Manners,' 287–292

THO

Thompson (Lady), Montenegro, 306–320; A Ride through Bosnia and the Hercegovina, 685–700
Timber-trees and forest conservancy in India, 265–286
Tragedy of the 'Ex-,' The, 293–301
Trelawny, Pirate, 798–807
Trout-Streams, Hope for the, 638–644
Tuberculosis, scarlet fever, and dairy-farms, 950–960
Tupper (Sir Charles), The Problem of Empire, 701–714
Tweedie (Major-General W.), The Dogs of Baghdad: a Study from Life, 1004–1011

UNIONISTS and Tory democracy, 405–418
United Kingdom, Agricultural Education in the, 108–118
United States, Divorce in the, 119–126
Universal Military Training as a Practicable Scheme, 364–376
University teaching and the needs of practical life, 490–500
Unrest in India, The—its Meaning, 873–885

VAUGHAN (Canon), The Literary Associations of Hampshire, 658–669
Verney (Frederick), The King of Siam and his Country, 902–908

WOR

Voluntary schools and the Education Bill, 1–11
Volunteers and Mr. Haldane's Army Bill, 742–751

WANDERING Jew, The, 969–979
Ward (Wilfrid), The Pope and France, 27–41
Ware (Fabian), Conservative Opportunists and Imperial Democracy, 405–418
Wedlock and divorce, Milton's views upon, 127–135
Weekes (Reginald Newton), The Curse of Machinery, 68–75
What to Drink, 883–886
Wheeler (C. B.), Milton's 'Doctrine and Discipline of Divorce,' 127–135
'White Flag,' The, in Jamaica, 909–917
Winchester, Literary celebrities of, 658–669
Withers (Hartley), 'Window Dressing' in the Money Market, 150–162; The Firmness of Consols, 821–832
Woman suffrage, 227–236, 472–476
Woman's proper sphere—marriage and motherhood, 593–594
Women and Politics, 227–236; a Reply to, 472–476; two Rejoinders, 593–601
Women criminals and their life in prison, 780–797
World-empire, Our rivals in the struggle for, 715–726

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., NEW-STREET SQUARE
LONDON